

One Day

(The Song of Anonymous Moth)

I can't see
Why the world won't see
I am green
But my nose is clean

I used to dream
That I had secrets for us
It's not to be
For this Anonymous Moth
Is lost!

One day soon
The world will wake up falling
What's the world to do?
No one left for calling!
One day soon the world'll
Wake up high and dry!
And then they'll miss me
The truth was in me
But all the world was blind...

They won't see
That I hold the key

And those dreams
Will remain undreamed

If we believe
Maybe the secret's not lost
For you and me
We need Anonymous Moths
A lot!

One day soon
The world will wake up falling
What's the world to do?
One day soon the world'll
Wake up high and dry!
And then they'll miss me
The truth was in me
But all the world was blind...

I am green
But the world won't see...
